New Product from Lloyd's – Commercial Lines

ProSurancePlus

Errors and Omissions (E&O) Policy

We are excited to announce our newest product available from Lloyd's. ProSurancePlus is a new E&O policy that has been designed to address the insurance needs of most Canadian professionals. A version of the policy has been developed for each of the major professions – specifically tailored for their particular requirements.

We believe that a market need exists in the Maritimes for E&O cover for professionals who operate small to medium sized businesses. ProSurancePlus targets these smaller businesses by offering highly competitive pricing as well the best quality coverage available. The program can write most professions including those that are unusual.

Examples include but are not limited to the following:

Standard Professions (examples)

- Engineers / Architects / Surveyors
- Appraisers
- Environmental Consultants
- Accountants
- Investigators
- Real Estate Agents
- Insurance Brokers / Agents / Adjusters
- Home Inspectors
- Quality Assurance Consultants
- Public Relations Consultants

'Soft Medical' Professions (examples)

- Health and Fitness Gyms
- Laser Eye Clinics
- Dieticians
- Massage therapists
- Nursing Homes
- Psychologists
- Psychotherapists
- Occupational therapists
- Counselling
- First Aid Trainers

ProSurancePlus provides very broad E&O cover. E&O may be written on its own, or combined with CGL and / or Commercial Property cover. Worldwide coverage is available, including the United States. Minimum premium are as low as $750 and limits of up to $5,000,000 are available. The policy is fully flexible – clients can pick and choose desired coverage options.

Please try us with your next Errors and Omissions insurance prospect. Our Commercial Underwriters would be pleased to help. Commission paid 15%.

Remember, when you deal with Angus-Miller you will always receive great service from local Underwriters you know and trust. Thanks for your support.
